

Final conference for the FP7 Collaborative Project Value Isobars
Club de la Fondation Universitaire, Rue d'Egmont 11, Brussels
22 November 2011, 10.00-15.30

Programme

- 10 Opening Address by Gilles Laroche, Directorate-General for Research & Innovation, European Commission
- 10.15 Matthias Kaiser (coordinator for Value Isobars, Univ. of Bergen): The Value Isobars Project its rationale, structure and outcome.
- 10.30 George Gaskell (LSE): Why values are important for governance.
- 11 Coffee/tea-break
- 11.15 The Value Isobars recommendations:
 - Silje Langvatn (Uni. Of Bergen): The idea of a European S&T Value Atlas
 - Nicole Kronberger (LSE): Getting data on values
 - Maria Inez Gameiro (Uni. Of Lisbon): Value based governance and the use of soft law instruments.
- 12.40 Round of questions
- 13 Lunch at the foundation
- 14 Reactions from end users and invited panelists:
 - Maura Hiney, Health Research Board, Ireland
 - Maurizio Salvi, BEPA, European Commission
 - Jean-Pierre Alix, CNRS, France.
- 14.30 Round table discussion
- 15.20 Lino Paula (EC-DG Research and Innovation, Project Officer of Value Isobars) & Matthias Kaiser (Coordinator of Value Isobars: Closing
- 15.30 End
- 19.30 Dinner, restaurant will be announced.

Project: 230557. Value Isobars- The Landscape and Isobars of European Values in Relation to Science and New Technology. Funded 2009-2011, Funded by FP7 SCIENCE-IN SOCIETY and coordinated by the University of Bergen.